

Langley Green Primary School

School Complaints Procedure

Introduction

All maintained schools in England are required to have a complaints procedure. For maintained schools this legal requirement is set out under section 29 of the Education Act 2002.

Langley Green Primary School endeavours to provide the best education possible for all of its pupils in an open and transparent environment. We welcome any feedback that we receive from parents, pupils and third parties, and we accept that not all of this will be positive. Where concerns are raised the school intends for these to be dealt with:

- Fairly
- Openly
- Promptly
- Without Prejudice

The majority of concerns can be dealt with without resorting to the procedure. Where you have a concern about any aspect of the school or your child's education or wellbeing, raise this with your child's class teacher. Ideally, they will be able to address your concerns on the spot, or can arrange a meeting with you to discuss the issue.

If you have a concern regarding our SEND provision please speak to Mrs Rowe our SENCo and Inclusion Leader.

Types of complaint covered by this Complaints Procedure

This Complaints Procedure covers complaints relating to the school or to the provision of facilities or services the school provides.

Who can raise a complaint

Complaints can be raised by any of the following:

- a parent or guardian of a registered child at the school;
- any person who has been provided with a service by the school;
- a member of the public from the wider community.

The term complainant is used throughout this document to refer to the person raising the complaint.

How complaints can be made

A complaint may be made:

- in person;
- by telephone;
- in writing;
- by e-mail.

Procedure

Informal Complaints

In many cases the complainant may first wish to make an informal approach to the class teacher, or the individual delivering the service in the case of extended school provision. Staff will endeavour to resolve the issues immediately, including the issuing of an apology if appropriate.

If the issue remains unresolved after an informal process of clarifying and attempting to resolve the issue, or if the complainant does not wish make an informal complaint, the formal complaints procedure should be followed.

Formal Complaints - The Four Stage Process

The formal complaints procedure is based on a four stage process:

- Stage 1: Complaint heard by a Staff Member (though not the subject of the complaint);
- Stage 2: Complaint heard by the Headteacher (unless the Headteacher is the subject of the complaint);
- Stage 3: Complaint heard by the Chair of Governors;
- Stage 4: Complaint heard by the Governing Body's Complaints Appeal Panel.

Langley Green Primary School's 'Formal Complaint Form', which may aid in making a formal complaint, is appended to this document.

Once a complaint has been made, the complainant can withdraw it at any stage during the complaints process if resolved satisfactorily. If the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of any stage, the complainant can request to proceed to the next stage of the process.

Further Procedural Advice

If the complainant remains dissatisfied after Stage 4, further procedural advice can be found below.

Communication Difficulties

Where there are communication difficulties, the school may wish to use recording devices to ensure the complainant is able to access and review the discussions at a later point.

Unreasonable Complainants

Langley Green Primary School is committed to dealing with all complaints fairly and impartially, and to providing a high quality service to those who complain. However, we do not expect our staff to tolerate unacceptable behaviour and will take action to protect staff from such behaviour, including that which is abusive, offensive or threatening. Our policy for dealing with these situations is also included below.

THE FOUR STAGES OF LANGLEY GREEN PRIMARY SCHOOL'S COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

STAGE 1 - Complaint heard by a staff member

- 1.1 In the first instance the complainant should make an appointment to discuss their concern with the appropriate member of staff.
- 1.2 The complainant can bring a companion with them to any proposed meeting.
- 1.3 A written record will be made of the meeting. All parties will have access to the record.
- 1.4 The person facilitating the meeting will ensure all parties are clear about any actions that have been agreed as a result.
- 1.5 This stage will be dealt with as speedily as possible and concluded in writing, as appropriate.
- 1.6 If no satisfactory resolution is reached the complainant can refer the complaint to the Headteacher (if the Headteacher was not the member of staff the concern was initially discussed with at point 1.1).
- 1.7 If the member of staff directly involved feels too compromised to deal with a complaint, the Complaints Co-ordinator may consider referring the complaint to another member of staff. The member of staff may be more senior but this is not a requirement. The ability to consider the complaint objectively and impartially is crucial.
- 1.8 Where the first approach is made to a governor, the next step would be to refer the complainant to the appropriate person and advise them about the procedure. It is useful if governors do not act unilaterally on an individual complaint outside the formal procedure, or be involved at the early stages, in case they are needed to sit on a panel at a later stage of the procedure.

STAGE 2 - Complaint heard by the Headteacher, or by the Chair of Governors if the complaint is about the Headteacher

- 2.1 Once the complaint has been referred, the Headteacher will gain clarity over the complaint and gain any supplementary information which may lead to resolution at this stage.
- 2.2 The Headteacher will meet with the complainant and/or subject of the complaint, if appropriate.
- 2.3 The Headteacher will meet, as appropriate, with any witnesses and take a note of any comments made from those involved.
- 2.4 Notes will be kept of all meetings, conversations and of the receipt of any documentation.

- 2.5 After establishing all the relevant facts, a written response will be recorded and sent to the complainant. The Headteacher may meet with the complainant to discuss their findings as he/she decides is appropriate.
- 2.6 The written record and response will include a full explanation of the decision reached and the reasons for this. If any action is to be taken at the school, this will also be identified.
- 2.7 The Stage 2 processes will take place within a reasonable time, and usual practice is that this may take up to 10 school days. However, every complaint is different and this may not always be possible. The Headteacher will keep the complainant informed in writing of the on-going time scale.
- 2.8 If the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of the Stage 2 investigation, or the complaint is about the Headteacher, the complainant should write to the Chair of Governors to request that their complaint is considered further (at Stage 3).

STAGE 3 - Complaint heard by the Chair of Governors or another nominated governor

- 3.1 If the complainant is not satisfied with the response of the Headteacher, or the complaint is about the Headteacher, the complainant should write to the Chair of Governors to request that their complaint is considered at Stage 3.
- 3.2 Once the complaint has been received, the Chair of Governors (or another governor nominated by the Chair of Governors) will gain clarity over the complaint and gain any supplementary information which may lead to resolution at this stage.
- 3.3 The Chair of Governors (or nominated governor) will meet with the complainant and/or subject of the complaint, if appropriate.
- 3.4 The Chair of Governors (or nominated governor) will meet, as appropriate, with any witnesses and take a note of any comments made by those involved.
- 3.5 Notes will be kept of all meetings, conversations and of the receipt of any documentation.
- 3.6 After establishing all the relevant facts, a written response will be recorded and sent to the complainant. The Chair of Governors (or nominated governor) may meet with the complainant to discuss their findings as he/she decides is appropriate.
- 3.7 The written record and response will include a full explanation of the decision reached and the reasons for this.
- 3.8 The Stage 3 processes will take place within a reasonable time, and usual practice is that this may take up to 10 school days. However, every complaint is different and this may not always be possible. The Chair of Governors (or nominated governor) will keep the complainant informed in writing of the on-going time scale.
- 3.9 If the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of the Stage 3 investigation the complainant should write to the school to request that their complaint is considered by a

Complaints Appeal Panel. The letter should be marked 'Private and Confidential' and addressed to: The Clerk to the Governing Body, c/o Langley Green Primary School, Stagelands, Langley Green, Crawley, West Sussex, RH11 7PF. The Complaints Appeal Panel will be formed of governors from the school's Governing Body.

STAGE 4 – Complaint heard by the Governing Body's Complaints Appeal Panel

- 4.1 The complainant should write to the Clerk to the Governing Body, as detailed above, giving full details of the complaint and requesting the Complaints Appeal Panel consider the matter. The Clerk to the Governors will acknowledge receipt within five school days.
- 4.2 The Chair of Governors, or if the Chair has been involved at any previous stage in the process, another nominated governor, will convene a Governing Body Complaints Appeal Panel. Individual complaints will not be heard by the whole Governing Body at any stage, as this could compromise the impartiality of any panel set up for a disciplinary hearing against a member of staff following a serious complaint.
- 4.3 A Clerk will be appointed to the Governing Body Complaints Appeal Panel at the start of Stage 4 to support the process and be the point of contact for the complainant. The Headteacher will be notified of the complaint at this stage if they have not previously been involved in the process.
- 4.4 The Clerk to the Governing Body Complaints Appeal Panel will:
- Set a convenient date, time and venue for the complaint to be heard;
 - Deal with all administration of the procedure;
 - Take notes at any meetings;
 - Be a single point of contact to facilitate communication between all parties;
 - Draft and despatch letters as required;
 - Liaise with the LA and other agencies for support/advice as requested.
- 4.5 The Complaints Appeal Panel will be established by drawing on governors with no prior or direct involvement with the complaint. It will also aim to provide a cross section of governors. If the whole Governing Body is aware of the substance of a complaint before the final stage has been completed, the school will arrange for an independent panel to hear the complaint. The school may approach a different school to ask for help or the local Governor Services team at West Sussex County Council.
- 4.6 The Headteacher will not serve on the Complaints Appeal Panel. The Chair of Governors will not serve on the Complaints Appeal Panel if he/she has had any prior involvement with the complaint.
- 4.7 Complainants have the right to request an independent panel if they believe there is likely to be bias in the proceedings. The school will consider the request but ultimately the decision is made by the governors.
- 4.8 The Complaints Appeal Panel will be provided with any collated written material, reports, and relevant information and will consider the complaint on the basis of the written evidence available. The Complaints Appeal Panel may decide to request further clarification from the complainant and Headteacher before writing and notifying them of the arrangements for the formal panel meeting. Any additional information received by the Complaints Appeal Panel will be shared with all parties prior to the meeting.

- 4.9 The Panel members will decide how the meeting will be conducted and who is present. The panel will decide whether to meet each party individually or invite all to attend at the same time.
- 4.10 The Clerk will write to all relevant parties informing them of the date and time of the meeting, whether the Panel will consider written evidence only or will be inviting them to attend and give an outline of how the meeting will be conducted. The Clerk will include a copy of all relevant documents, policies or procedures that will be considered by the Panel at the meeting. Notification of the Panel meeting will be sent not less than five school days before the meeting. All parties should acknowledge receipt of the meeting notification and all related documentation itemised in the accompanying letter.
- 4.11 Within reason, the Clerk will arrange a date and time for the Panel meeting that is convenient to the complainant and other relevant parties if they are attending in person.
- 4.12 The complainant has a right to be accompanied to the meeting by a friend/representative. The friend/representative may:
- Confer with the complainant during the meeting;
 - Ask questions of witnesses;
 - Sum up the complainants complaint if requested by them.

The friend or representative may NOT:

- Answer questions on the complainants behalf;
 - Address the Panel if the complainant does not wish it;
 - Prevent the complainant from summarising the complaint.
- 4.13 All written evidence should be submitted prior to the meeting wherever possible so that it can be considered by all parties.
- 4.14 If necessary the Panel meeting will be adjourned if there is insufficient time to consider extra evidence received at the start of the meeting to enable it to be circulated and considered by all parties.
- 4.15 The Panel may wish to call witnesses to the meeting.
- 4.16 The complainant, and other parties previously involved in the complaint if invited, can expect the following process to be followed:
- The hearing will proceed in an informal, but appropriate, manner;
 - Witnesses shall be present only for the part of the hearing relevant to their involvement and may not remain for the entire hearing (at the discretion of the Chair of the Panel);
 - Introductions shall be made by all parties present;
 - The complainant will be invited to explain the complaint;
 - The Headteacher will be invited to explain the reasons for decisions reached up to this point;

- If all parties are in attendance together, the complainant may then question the Headteacher;
- If all parties are in attendance together, the Headteacher may then question the complainant;
- The Panel may ask questions of any party at any time;
- Witnesses, subject to prior approval by the chair of the Complaints Appeal Panel, will be called;
- All parties to have the right to question all witnesses;
- The complainant will be invited to sum up their complaint;
- The Headteacher will then be invited to sum up the school's position and response to the complaint.

4.17 At the conclusion of the Complaints Appeal Panel hearing the Chair of the Panel will inform the complainant and the Headteacher that the Panel will consider its decision in private and will send a written response within 10 school days. At this point all parties other than Panel Members and the clerk must vacate the room.

4.18 The Panel will consider the original written complaint, along with all subsequent evidence that has been presented both orally and in writing. The remit of the Panel is to:

- a) Dismiss the complaint in whole or in part;
- b) Uphold the complaint in whole or in part;
- c) Decide what, if any, action should be taken to resolve the complaint;
- d) Recommend any changes, if appropriate, to the school's processes or systems to ensure similar complaints do not arise again the future.

The Panel will present their findings in writing.

4.19 The Clerk or Chair of the Panel will ensure the written findings outlining the Panel's decision are sent to both the complainant and the Headteacher.

4.20 Stage 4 should be completed in 25 school days. However, this may not always be possible, especially if a complaint is complex. Where that is the case, the Clerk will ensure both parties are written to and advised of the revised target date.

4.21 There is no right of appeal against the Governing Body Complaints Appeal Panel decision. If the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes the Panel has acted unreasonably in response to the complaint, the complainant should be advised to write to The School Complaints Unit (SCU) at: Department for Education, 2nd Floor, Piccadilly Gate, Manchester, M1 2WD or in some circumstances, Ofsted if the complaint is likely to lead to a determination that there is a need to inspect the school. Ofsted cannot seek to resolve any individual complaint.

FURTHER PROCEDURAL ADVICE

If the complainant remains dissatisfied after Stage 4, further procedural advice is offered below.

Role of the Secretary of State, Department for Education (DfE), School Complaints Unit

For the School Complaints Unit to become involved they would need to be sure that:

- The school has acted or is proposing to act unreasonably in the exercise of performance of its functions imposed by or under the Education Act 1996,
- Or
- The school has failed to discharge any duty imposed by, or for the purposes of, the Education Act 1996.

If the complainant believes that this is the case they should refer to the Department for Education website where guidance can be found to support the next part of the process. The relevant guidance can be found at:

<https://www.gov.uk/complain-about-school>

The complainant may find the following useful:

- Further information can be obtained from the SCU by calling the National Helpline on 0370 000 2288 or by going online at: www.education.gov.uk/help/contactus
- The complainant must complete a complaints form and return it online or by post to the Department for Education, School Complaints Unit, Second Floor, Piccadilly Gate, Store Street, Manchester, M1 2WD.
- Copies of relevant documentation relating to the complaint may be sent with the form.
- The DfE will inform the complainant who will be handling the case and a timescale for the process when they have received the form.
- The DfE aim to initially respond within fifteen working days but update the complainant if the timescale is longer.
- If the complainant remains unhappy with the service given by the DfE in processing the complaint they would need to contact the DfE complaints department and follow the 'DfE complaints' procedure.

Role of Ofsted (Office for Standards in Education)

Ofsted will not investigate cases concerning individual pupils.

A complainant can complain to Ofsted about any state school if there is a problem that affects the whole school. This includes problems with the quality of education or poor management.

Ofsted have an on-line form and aim to respond within 30 working days. Their initial response will tell you if Ofsted will investigate or not, and why. Refer to:

<https://www.gov.uk/complain-about-school>

SERIAL AND PERSISTENT COMPLAINTS

There will be occasions when, despite all stages of the school's complaints procedure having been followed, the complainant remains dissatisfied. If the complainant tries to reopen the process by writing to the Chair of Governors, or any member of school staff, with the same complaint, the Chair of Governors may respond to them in writing that all stages of the school's complaints procedure have been exhausted and that the matter is now closed.

Policy for Unreasonable Complainants

Langley Green Primary School is committed to dealing with all complaints fairly and impartially, and to providing a high quality service to those who complain. We will not normally limit the contact complainants have with the school. However, we do not expect our staff to tolerate unacceptable behaviour and will take action to protect staff from that behaviour, including that which is abusive, offensive or threatening.

Langley Green Primary School defines unreasonable complainants as 'those who, because of the frequency or nature of their contacts with the school, hinder our consideration of their or other people's complaints'.

A complaint may be regarded as unreasonable when the person making the complaint:-

- refuses to articulate their complaint or specify the grounds of a complaint or the outcomes sought by raising the complaint, despite offers of assistance;
- refuses to co-operate with the complaints investigation process while still wishing their complaint to be resolved;
- refuses to accept that certain issues are not within the scope of a complaints procedure;
- insists on the complaint being dealt with in ways which are incompatible with the adopted complaints procedure or with good practice;
- introduces trivial or irrelevant information which the complainant expects to be taken into account and commented on, or raises large numbers of detailed but unimportant questions, and insists they are fully answered, often immediately and to their own timescales;
- makes unjustified complaints about staff who are trying to deal with the issues, and seeks to have them replaced;
- changes the basis of the complaint as the investigation proceeds;
- repeatedly makes the same complaint (despite previous investigations or responses concluding that the complaint is groundless or has been addressed);
- refuses to accept the findings of the investigation into that complaint where the school's complaint procedure has been fully and properly implemented and completed including referral to the Department for Education;
- seeks an unrealistic outcome;
- makes excessive demands on school time by frequent, lengthy, complicated and stressful contact with staff regarding the complaint in person, in writing, by e-mail or by telephone while the complaint is being dealt with.

A complaint may also be considered unreasonable if the person making the complaint does so either face-to-face, by telephone or in writing or electronically:-

- maliciously;
- aggressively;
- using threats, intimidation or violence;
- using abusive, offensive or discriminatory language;

- knowing it to be false;
- using falsified information;
- publishing unacceptable information in a variety of media such as in social media websites and newspapers.

Complainants should try to limit the numbers of communications with the school while a complaint is being progressed. It is not helpful if repeated correspondence is sent (either by letter, phone, email or text) as it could delay the outcome being reached.

Whenever possible, the Headteacher or Chair of Governors will discuss any concerns with the complainant informally before applying an 'unreasonable' marking.

If the behaviour continues the Headteacher will write to the complainant explaining that their behaviour is unreasonable and asking them to change it.

For complainants who excessively contact Langley Green Primary School causing a significant level of disruption, we may specify methods of communication and limit the number of contacts in a communication plan. This will usually be reviewed after 6 months.

In response to any serious incident of aggression or violence, the concerns and actions taken will be put in writing immediately and the police informed. This may include banning an individual from Langley Green Primary School.
